If you answered “yes” to either of the last two questions, please forward relevant information on this matter to the Dean of Admission.

Criminal background checks may be required to determine eligibility for admission into some programs and/or field placement, practicum, or clinical assignments. Some misdemeanor offenses may justify the denial of admission into a licensure program or access to practicum or clinical assignments.

A record of prior criminal conviction(s) will not necessarily be a bar to admission to the University. The University will take into account such factors as the nature and seriousness of the offense, the age of the offense, and any evidence that the potential student has successfully engaged in efforts to be held accountable or to rehabilitate.

Note: By completing and signing this application, students who attend the Mount give the University permission to use his/her photographs and/or digital media for marketing purposes, both on the website and in print materials. The photographs and digital media become the property of the University and are only used to promote the Mount.
